

Theme: When would you like to be a child?      Date: Autumn 2022

Non - Topic

History

We will be examining the lives of children over the last two hundred years. This will include hands on evidence and the use of primary sources from the Victorian era to refugees and evacuees in WW2.

We will end up looking at the changes for children the 60s brought about. As part of a living history activity, children will get the chance to interview relatives and record their findings.
